

Agriculture is about production and people. For over 30 years Meridian Agriculture has helped businesses working in Australian agriculture recruit and manage the right people. The human resources and recruitment team at Meridian Agriculture know people. They know how to find them for you and ensure they are the right fit for the role, your business and your culture. The team will work with you to develop a thorough approach to managing people within your business.

WHAT CAN WE DO FOR YOU?

Meridian Agriculture provides advice on a fee for service basis with areas of expertise in the following:

- On farm and agribusiness recruitment including job specifications and position descriptions; position advertising; application management; candidate shortlisting; interview reports and reference checks; interview preparation; interviews and salary negotiation.
- Workplace inductions.
- Employment contracts, documentation and performance reviews.
- Develop policies for your workplace.
- Tailored attraction and retention strategies.
- Terminations and redundancies.
- Skills training and staff development.
- Industrial relations advice.
- Mentoring and coaching.
- Workplace health and safety audits and plans.

THE BENEFITS

1. An independent advisor working with you to attract the right staff and help you manage your team, ensuring all processes are compliant with relevant legislation and best practice.
2. Time-saving approach to advertising, interviewing, assessing and appointing new staff.
3. An opportunity to bed down and improve the people management side of your business.

WHAT IS YOUR VIEW FROM THE VERANDAH?

Have you ever thought about what the future looks like? If you sat on your verandah and looked out over the next twenty years, what does your farm, your family and your business look like? Meridian Agriculture advisors can help you identify exactly where your business is now from a production and financial perspective and develop an action plan to achieve your goals for the future.

It is important to have objectives with regard to your:

- Family and Lifestyle.
- Succession and estate plan.
- Children's education and your retirement.
- Production metrics and financial position.
- Management, marketing and technology.
- Labour, land and resources.
