

CAPABILITY STATEMENT

PAUL BLACKSHAW

Bachelor of Applied Science (Agriculture) -
University of Melbourne

Cert IV Workplace Assessment and Training

Areas of Expertise

- Farm business economics
- Financial planning and analysis
- Succession Planning
- Cashflow budgeting and monitoring
- Benchmarking
- Rural financial counselling
- Project design, delivery, management and review
- Public speaking and facilitation
- Communication planning
- Capacity building through extension
- Industry and government projects

Paul is a farm business advisor with Meridian Agriculture. He is a specialist in farm business economics with experience in financial analysis, benchmarking, leadership, industry extension projects, rural financial counselling, strategic leadership and planning.

Paul holds a Bachelor of Applied Science (Agriculture) from the University of Melbourne.

Paul is based in Rutherglen in NE Victoria and provides on-farm consultancy, including farm business financial analysis, succession planning and benchmarking. Paul also works closely with industry and government in project management.